

Completely independent of our BUSCA websites, the Barrow Parish Council website can offer you a wealth of information about the Council, including any vacancies within the Council.

- An A-Z of Parish, Borough and County services
- About the Parish Council – its councillors, staff, committees and meetings including agendas and minutes
- Council policy including standing orders, financial regulations, code of conduct
- Cemetery information
- Contact details, opening hours
- Planning links to Charnwood Borough Council's Planning Explorer for all local planning applications
- Community information e.g. halls for hire, Parish Council walks, events etc.
- Latest News

BUSCA (Barrow upon Soar Community Association) is an umbrella organisation and registered charity formed from many different interest groups. Each group is made up of committed volunteers who enjoy what they do and also help to bring the people of Barrow together.

Get Involved

- Barrow Voice
- The Events Committee
- Heritage Group
- Library Management Committee
- New Community Building Committee
- Panto Group
- BUSCA Trustees' Council
- Twinning Association
- Youth Theatre
- Website administrators for BUSCA's four websites

These are all open groups and they welcome new members. You can use the BUSCA website to get involved or just get more information.

Published by BUSCA

Designed & Produced by Mulberry Square

Community WWW Websites

www.busca.org.uk

www.barrowpc.org.uk

www.barrowvoice.co.uk

www.barrowuponsoar.org.uk

www.barrowuponsoarheritage.org.uk

Five websites to introduce you to village services, business enterprises, places to visit, events, heritage sites, community groups, local government and the village magazine, Barrow Voice.

Otherwise known as 'the village website'.

If you're looking for general information about Barrow upon Soar and what happens here, you can find a wealth of detail here.

Discover

- Local businesses
- Services in Barrow
- Community groups
- Places to eat and takeaways
- Pubs
- Local news and what's on
- Information about our community library

Explore

- Maps and guides
- Photo galleries
- Leisure and sporting opportunities
- Educational activities
- Places to visit

Create

As well as finding out more about Barrow, you're also able to register and edit your own business and community pages.

This is the on-line version of our popular village magazine Barrow Voice so if you've misplaced your latest issue, all is not lost. You can find all the editions on line going right back to 2003. Our quarterly magazine is jam-packed with accounts of current, past and future events and interesting articles written by members of the Barrow community.

Read

- Letters to the Editor
- Reviews of Barrow events
- Feature articles relating to Barrow
- Barrow responses to national and international events

Find

- News of future events in the Village Diary
- Advertisements for local businesses
- Extra photos, articles and YouTube clips in the online version

You can use the website to contact The Editor to place your advert, submit an article or join the editorial team.

BARROW UPON SOAR HERITAGE GROUP

Research the historic past of Barrow upon Soar with our Heritage website. Here you can learn about our village history, current projects, information about our old buildings that still stand today, and how people lived. Visit our photo gallery of pictures from the past.

Find

- Barrow upon Soar's local heritage and history
- News from Barrow Heritage Group
- Current Heritage Group projects
- Historical Census and burial data
- Local family history
- Information about old industries now long gone

Use the site to make contact with the Heritage Group. You could become a member yourself.

